FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

Do you want to be considered for financial aid? Yes No

Please read and initial you have reviewed and understand the following information:

- UC Davis is responsible for the awarding of aid to UCCS Program Participants, regardless of home campus.
- You are responsible for adding the UC Davis school code to your FAFSA. The code is 001313.
- Financial aid packages may be less in the summer and may not cover the entire cost of the summer program. Summer quarters/semesters should be added to the prior academic year. E.g. Summer 2019 is part of the 2018-19 academic year.
- Summer aid is awarded on a first-come, first-served basis and there is limited funding.

FACULTY ENDORSEMENT FORM

Instructions to the student:

Please take this form to a faculty member who is familiar with your work and can vouch for your ability to excel at the UC Center Sacramento. Discuss the details of the UC Center Sacramento program (students spend a quarter/semester in Sacramento participating in policy-oriented internships while taking courses) with them so they are familiar with the program demands. Please fill out your name, print the form and bring it to a faculty member for discussion and to request their signature and contact information. If faculty members have any questions, they can contact the program's Associate Director, Cindy Simmons, at csimmons@ucdavis.edu.

Instructions to the faculty member:

Dear Faculty Member:

_____ is applying for admission to the University of California Center Sacramento (UCCS). UCCS has asked applicants to speak with a faculty member about their interest in participating in our policy programs to receive an endorsement of their application. UCCS participants spend a quarter/semester in Sacramento completing policy-related internships while earning academic credit. "Endorsing" a student's application means you are familiar with the applicant's work and are vouching for their ability to excel while at UCCS.

Briefly describe your familiarity with this student's academic ability and work ethic:

Your signature below confirms that the above student has met with you discuss their interest in the program and that you endorse their application.

UCCS STUDENT PROFESSIONALISM STANDARDS

- Students must adhere to the UC Davis Principles of Community, found at <http://catalog.ucdavis.edu/community.html>
- UCCS Students are expected to read and adhere to the UC Policy of Student Conduct and Discipline, found at <https://policy.ucop.edu/doc/2710530/PACAOS-100>
- Each student must remember at all times that they represent the University of California and UC Center Sacramento. This is important because, in the Capitol, each student is a living example of the value of a UC education. Students represent the university while studying in class, working at an internship, or attending an after-hours social event.
- UCCS students are expected to comport themselves in ways that show respect for themselves and for the university, and for the responsibilities and obligations that each has accepted as part of this academic internship program.
- While engaged at their internships or attending or participating in public events, UCCS students are expected to refrain from making inappropriate comments about race, ethnicity, religion, or sexual orientation.
- UCCS students are expected to recognize, understand and respect the rights of others; to respect boundaries imposed on your behavior by others; to respect and comply with requests made to you by others with regard to their personal space.
- Students are expected to be on time for every event.
- Students are expected to be on time for their internships unless an absence or late arrival first has been cleared with a supervisor at the internship. Absences also must be communicated in advance to the internship director at UCCS.
- Students are expected to adhere to the work schedule negotiated with their internship supervisors.
- Students are expected to communicate with their supervisor or with staff here at UC Center, if they have any problems. Problems can be resolved – but only if staff knows about them.
- Students are expected to perform diligently at their internships. They are expected to attend class and scheduled events on time at UC Center, and to complete all assignments associated with UCCS classes.
- Students are expected to review all information, dates, deadlines, and UC Davis policies, and for following instructions in emails and materials received from UC Center Sacramento faculty, staff and UCD offices, including the Financial Aid Office and the Office of the Registrar.
- Students are expected to comply with requests from UCCS Staff.

Health Justice Scholars Award

The Health Justice Scholars Award is made possible by a grant from The California Endowment.

About The Health Justice Scholars Award

Health justice is predicated on the observation that there are “avoidable health inequalities” that “arise because of the circumstances in which people grow, live, work, and age, and the systems put in place to deal with illness.”¹ UCCS is proud to offer The Health Justice Scholars Award for students who have worked to combat health inequities in the past and/or plan to do so in the future and will use their time at UC Center Sacramento to pursue health justice for California’s residents.

Note: The Health Justice Scholars Award is a $1,500 award intended for students for whom attendance at UCCS is expected to impose additional travel and living expenses beyond usual costs at their home campus.

Application Questions

Write short-answer responses (1 paragraph each) to each of the following questions and attach to your application.

1. Describe your prior interest in and activities related to health justice.
2. Describe your interest in pursuing activities related to health justice in the future.
3. Describe your commitment to improving the health and well-being of people in California and, if applicable, in the Central Valley or the Inland Empire.
4. Describe how receiving this award would make attending UC Center Sacramento more financially viable.
5. Describe an example of confronting a hardship or challenge in your own life or the life of a family member and how you or they dealt with this hardship/challenge.

Note: DACA/AB540/Undocumented students are eligible to apply for the Health Justice Scholars Award.

Health Justice Scholars Award Requirements

If I am granted the Health Justice Scholars Award, I agree to meet the following minimum requirements during my participation in UC Center Sacramento:

- Identify and participate in an internship related to health justice.
- Create content regarding my experience at least 3 times during the quarter of my enrollment and share this content via UCCS-sponsored social media (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, UCCS blog).
- Compose a 250-word essay at the end of my UCCS enrollment reflecting on my experience in UCCS as it relates to health justice.
- Complete an evaluation at the end of my UCCS enrollment that reflects on my experiences in my classes, my internship, and the UCCS program as a whole.

I understand that if I do not complete one or more of the above requirements during my enrollment at UCCS, I will no longer be eligible to receive the Health Justice Scholars Award, even if I have previously been named a recipient of the Award.
